1. Inhabitants in the northern Yugoslav border zone area 16 years of age and over are required to carry a green identification card. Those failing to procure this card are fined 5,000 dinars.<sup>1</sup> 25X1
2. Only border guards are permitted to enter the 100 meter wide border strip, which although previously deforested in many places, has grown a low brush in the past few years. Observation sites have been erected on top of the Kapauner mountain as well as at other more important observation points. 25X1
3. In about August 1954, the border guard at Radel pass and at the border guard house on the Kapauner mountain were increased to 20 men each.

Comment: It was reported earlier  that the special green identification card requirement had been dropped in the spring of 1954, but that it would be resumed later. The more recent report above indicates that the security of the northern Yugoslav border is being tightened. 25X1
